

Human Trafficking Exam Questions

1. A person who falls prey to Human Trafficking is known as a _____
2. The term "Trafficking" refers to the transportation of a _____
3. There are _____ illicit massage businesses nationwide
4. Involuntary domestic servitude is found primarily in _____
5. _____ million individuals have been reported to be victims of forced labor
6. As with victims of sex trafficking, victims of forced labor are also coerced in a variety of ways. These methods include:
7. Professional associations within the massage industry have banded together to fight human trafficking and it affects on the massage industry. These groups include:
8. In July 2019, Florida's Board of Massage Therapy passed Human Trafficking Chapter 2019 – 152, Laws of Florida. This group of laws focuses on the establishment of new professional requirements, continuing education and additional training and resources for a number of professions including:
9. In order of highest to lowest percentages, sectors, where victims of forced labor exploitation are found in the _____ sector.
10. In many cases, illicit massage businesses are identified by several indicators, which include:
11. Indicators that a massage parlor offers potential human trafficking for sex or labor, as well as commercial sex, can include:
12. While incidents of human trafficking and illicit massage businesses can be found in every state throughout the U.S., a handful have proven to have the highest concentrations. These states include:
13. More than _____% of victims are recruited by friends and family. (Georgia Cares).
14. The negative effects that public perception has on the overall massage therapy industry, is often the result of misinterpreting the massage professional with those engaged in _____
15. Among the first steps to identify victims is to recognize the most common signs of human trafficking. Among them include:
